

Republican Control Has Reduced County Debts From $811,000 to $111,000

Interest Charge Was $32,441 a Year When Democrats Were Ousted and Now is $5,195 a Year—Improvements Not Neglected, Many Roads Built and Paid For While Decreasing Old Democratic Incurred Debts—Why a Republican Board of Supervisors Should be Maintained in Ulster County.

Very often, in the election of supervisors in the towns in the county, it is lost to the fact that a supervisor is primarily a county officer, not a town officer, and that as such officers and as members of the Board of Supervisors the finances of the county are within their control.

In the past twenty years, the county of Ulster has been fortunate in having the Republican party in control of the Board of Supervisors. This importance is reflected in the savings of the public debt of the county and in the expenditures making up the tax budget, which the people of the county of Ulster must bear.

It is a well known fact, that practically every municipality in the state of New York, including counties, cities and villages, have, during the last fifteen years, and especially since the war, increased their bonded debts by leaps and bounds. Governor Smith has repeatedly attempted to explain the great increase in the state as being the result of increasing municipal expenditures, rather than increasing state expenditures; and this has been one of the reasons which he has advanced for consolidating up-state municipalities.

In Ulster county, however, any statement is untrue and incorrect for unlike the other municipalities of the state, the county of Ulster has reduced its bonded debt, since the Republicans have been in control of the board of supervisors. It has never refunded an issue of bonds.

Funded Debt and Interest.

In 1903, when the Democratic control of the board of supervisors ended the funded debt of the county was $811,000 and the annual interest charges amounted to $32,441.00. This funded debt had been placed in the county without regard to its ultimate result, and without intelligent consideration of the financial effect of such issues. The county house and jail bonds issued under Democratic administrations, instead of providing that they might be paid or reduced, or perhaps refunded at a lower rate of interest, were issued for long periods, no provision was made for a sinking fund, they contained no provision by which they could be called, and their issuance has resulted in the county of Ulster paying more in interest than the principal of the bonds themselves amounted to.

Since the Republicans have been in control of the board of supervisors, they have annually met the bonds which became due, and have reduced the bonded indebtedness of the county, until at the present time, it is only $111,000.00, less in fact than the amount of the mortgages on several of the larger industrial and business properties within the county, and the interest charges today, amount to only $5,195.00.

Bonds Issued Only Once.

Only once in the twenty-two years, that the board of supervisors has been under Republican control, has it ever been necessary to resort to the issuance of bonds, and that was in the year 1923, and was due to a large proportion of the county's share of the cost of the construction of the New Paltz-Highland county highway, and the Rosendale village county highway, being payable in the year. The bonds then issued were serial bonds, payable in installments, worked out on a financial basis, most advantageously to the county, and contrary to the method employed by the Democrats in issuing the county house and jail bonds for the straight periods and for terms.

Ulster county is therefore in the unique position of being the only municipality in the state which has reduced its funded debt, and during the period of time from 1903 to 1933, notwithstanding the added burden of the reduction of the county debt from over $800,000 to approximately $110,000, the county of Ulster has paid for its proportion of the construction of upwards of 100 miles of county highway, in addition to contributing upwards of one-half million dollars for the construction of town roads with county aid. This record certainly merits the consideration of the voters of the county of Ulster, and the consideration of the Republican party in control of that board.

Other Reductions Accomplished. In addition to the reduction of the county debt under the Republican administration of county affairs, many abuses which formerly existed, have been remedied. Under a Democratic administration of the office of sheriff, the bills annually amounted to upwards of $20,000. To be specific, in 1905 the sheriff's bills amounted to $20,443.23, while in 1925, under Republican control, the amount of these bills had been reduced to $5,505.50, notwithstanding the tremendous increase in costs generally, and especially in administrative county offices.

Under Democratic control, the office of county clerk was a fee office, and the bills in 1905 amounted to $7,555.24, in addition to which the county clerk received the fees and emoluments from the office. In 1925, the total expenditures in the county clerk's office, audited by the board of supervisors, was $203.25, and in addition thereto, the salaries amounted to $14,550.00, but as against these expenditures the receipts of the office applicable to reduction of the costs of administration, amounted to $18,531.50.

In other words, in 1925, under a Republican administration, the county of Ulster made upwards of $2,500 out of the operation of the county clerk's office, while in 1905, under Democratic administration of the board of supervisors, it cost the county of Ulster upwards of $7,000 to operate and maintain the county clerk's office. The Republican party was instrumental in changing the sheriff's office and county clerk's office from a fee to a salary office.

Reducing Bills and Budget.

Another evidence of a saving on the part of the Republican administration, is in connection with supply bills. The printers' bills of the county were formerly matters of almost public scandal. In 1905, when, as everyone knows, costs were very materially less, probably by several hundred per cent than in 1925, the printing bills of the county amounted to upwards of $22,000. In 1925, under Republican administration of affairs in the county, these bills amounted to but $14,500.

In 1905, the general county budget under Democratic administration amounted to $219,557.31; in 1925, the general county budget, after eliminating expenditures levied upon the county by State Legislative enactment, amounted to approximately $210,000, notwithstanding the increasing costs of commodities and government in general.

Hospitals and Highways. It is true that the expenditures for care of the poor and indigent have increased, due to the fact that the county now maintains a tuberculosis hospital, and has arranged for the construction of a new one. Likewise the highway budget has increased, due to the fact that in the past twenty-two years, upwards of 200 miles of county road have been constructed in the county, and upwards of 350 miles of town roads have been improved by county aid. The increased use of the automobile, of course, has made these expenditures imperative. But the fact remains that in general expenditures have been decreased.

Voters Should Consider Facts. Every voter should consider these facts when he or she goes to the polls next Tuesday. An administration of county affairs, during a period of constantly increasing costs, on a basis whereby the funded debt of the county has been reduced, and the expenditures of the county and the costs of government kept down, should commend itself to every intelligent and thinking voter, in respect of party, and the only logical conclusion is, that a Republican Board of Supervisors should be returned.

DRY AGENTS RAID ALLEGED BREWERY

An alleged miniature brewery valued at $10,000 is said to have been raided by Federal agents on a Stoughton, Columbia county farm Tuesday. It is claimed that there were 13 one hundred gallon vats, 150 half-barrels of alleged beer and 200 empty beer barrels on the place. No arrests were made but the agents said that a summons will be issued calling for the alleged owner to appear before United States Commissioner Connolly at Kingston some time this week.

First Snow At Woodstock. Woodstock, N. Y., Nov. 3 (AP)—The first snow of the season fell here today while apple and pear trees were in bloom for the second time this year and violets were flowering.

The snow lasted 15 minutes.

Estep Not Placed On Committee

Fight Against Representative Elect Based on Fact That He was a New Member—No Opposition To Sweet.

Washington, Nov. 3 (AP)—A breach that developed in the ranks of house Republicans in the closing days of the last session over filling two vacancies in that party's membership on the ways and means committee has had an echo during the present hearing by the committee on tax reduction.

The two new Republican members, Representative elect Harry A. Estep of Pennsylvania, and Representative Theodore Sweet of New York, have not been placed upon the committee roll call, because, it was said, there is some uncertainty over whether Estep will retain his tentative place on the committee.

The status of the two members was argued at some length during a recent executive session of the committee but there has been no public announcement as to what took place. The fight against Estep was based on the fact that he was a new member and that a post on so important a committee should be given to a member older in point of service, especially with a number of such members clamoring for the assignment.

As Mr. Sweet has been in Congress for several terms no opposition was raised to his selection, and the fight was concentrated against Estep. He was selected, however, and the fact that he is not now considered as a full member of the committee is causing considerable speculation in the Capitol over what developments in the matter have taken place during the summer recess.

Rum Requests Too Drastic

Washington, Nov. 3 (AP)—Virtual collapse of negotiations for a rum agreement between the United States and France affecting the French islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon off the Newfoundland coast was reported today in Washington.

French authorities were said to feel that the American request for information on the departure of every liquor laden vessel from the island ports to the American waters was too drastic and might infringe on the rights of French nationals.

American officials have claimed that not only would about eighty per cent of the liquor smuggling in the United States be stopped but a check could be made of navigation violations as many fraudulent clearance papers have been found on rum ships.

Interborough Co. Applies for Writ

To Restrict A. F. O. L. Members From Enlisting I. R. T. Employees In The Amalgamated Association.

New York, Nov. 3 (AP)—Another crisis in New York's transportation services looms today after application of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company for an injunction to restrain any of the 100,000 American Federation of Labor members from enlisting I. R. T. employees in the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees.

An attempt to build up reserve crews in the event of a strike was seen by union officers in a notice published by Frank Hedley, president and general manager of the I. R. T., suggesting that employees might be trained as motormen in their spare time.

William D. Mahon, president of the Amalgamated Association, was expected here today for a "council of war" with Union representatives, labor leaders and lawyers.

Action of the Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit Company had resulted in the discharge of six men for sympathy with or membership in the Amalgamated Association, union officials charged, and they insisted this was in violation of the agreement made last July by Mayor Walker, whose intervention on the eve of a scheduled walkout averted a tie up of almost all of the city's transit facilities.

Terms of the truce then drawn up have been interpreted by the Union as permitting it to organize employees of the city's traction lines. The companies are held to maintain that the agreement read that they would not discriminate against employees who were union men when the pact was drawn up.

The application for injunction, aimed at William Green, president, and other officials and members of the A. F. O. L., is listed for hearing to the Supreme court on November 11.

Police Sergeant Seriously Hurt. Montreal, Nov. 3 (AP)—State Police Sergeant Peter Cole, 35, of Plattburgh, N. Y., suffered a fractured skull yesterday when his automobile collided with a truck on the King Edward Highway, about fifteen miles from here. He was removed to a local hospital where his condition was reported serious.

Lindbergh Trip Postponed.

Michel Field, N. Y., Nov. 3 (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh had hoped to fly to Detroit today but because of inclement weather army officials declined to clear the pursuit plane in which he will make the flight. He will probably leave tomorrow.

Marines Fight Off Guerillas

In Their Search For Two Missing Marine Corps Aviators—Sixty Guerillas Killed or Wounded.

Managua, Nicaragua, Nov. 3 (AP)—Continuing their search for two missing marine corps aviators, a combined combat patrol of United States marines and national guardsmen have fought two more engagements with Nicaraguan irregulars in which sixty of the guerillas were killed or wounded. One marine was wounded by flying glass from a bomb hurled by the bandits and two guardsmen were killed.

Combat patrols have been searching the region near El Chipote ever since early in October when Second Lt. E. A. Thomas and Sergeant Frank Dowdell, engaged in bombing followers of the rebel General Augusto Sandino, crashed in their plane and disappeared. Hope that they are still alive continues here and the search for them is being actively pushed. There have been frequent encounters between the bandits and these patrols.

The latest encounter took place about six miles east of Jinotega when the patrol encountered 250 guerillas. A fierce battle ensued and, within the brief space of 35 minutes, sixty of the bandits had been killed or wounded.

On the afternoon of the same day, the patrol, then about three miles from Jinotega, was ambushed by another bandit gang. A few minutes of fighting ensued. The patrol, although heavily outnumbered, scattered the guerillas. There were no known casualties on either side.

Extra Voting Machines Here

Owing to Increased Registration It Will Be Necessary to Use 33 Machines Next Tuesday—Voting Machines Loaned by Company.

Owing to the increased registration in Kingston it has been found necessary to increase the number of voting machines in the various wards. The city recently purchased twenty machines and the voting machine company has loaned the city thirteen additional machines which have been installed in the various wards making a total of thirty-three machines that will be in use here Election Day.

The board of elections is now busy mailing out sample ballots to all of the registered voters in Kingston. This ballot shows the position of each candidate on the machine, and also contains directions for voting any candidate on the ticket. Careful study of this sample ballot shows that it should be a simple matter to register your vote next Tuesday.

New Paths in Oil Jury Probe

Cause Official to Postpone Sending of Members of Trial Jury to Grand Jury—Thompson Appears Before Jury.

Washington, Nov. 3 (AP)—Examination of the grand jury investigation in charges of efforts to tamper with the grand jury of conspiracy to defraud today with increasing rapidity. New paths into which the inquiry had turned court officials to defer until the morning sending of the dismissed members of the grand jury to the grand jury, but District Attorney Peyton Gordon and some of his assistants conferred with members of the grand jury for more than an hour.

A surprise witness before the grand jury was Mark E. Thompson of New Mexico, one of counsel for Albert P. Fall, who was a co-defendant with Harry F. Sinclair in the trial which ended so sensationally yesterday when Justice Suddens cleared the jury box. Thompson said he had not been summoned. He was taken into the jury room by Nell Burkshaw, assistant district attorney directing the investigation.

Fall Issues Denial. Fall, who leased the Teapot Dome naval reserve to Sinclair, the act which brought the indictment of the two, in a statement issued on his own account yesterday, had denied any knowledge of the activities of Burns detectives which the government charges made efforts to obtain contact with the jurors for Sinclair. Edward K. Kidwell, slender, shock-haired juror No. 11, also went away before the inquisitorial body to return further charges made by a street car conductor and a newspaper reporter that he freely discussed the case against the court's orders and expressed the hope of soon having an automobile "as long as this block".

His composure somewhat restored after the chilling events of yesterday when he became the center of the blinding light of publicity after Justice Suddens declared the material Kidwell showed up at the district of Columbia supreme court with his father, Edward J. Kidwell, Sr., proprietor of a barber shop.

Day Refuses to Answer.

A Mason Day, vice-president of the Sinclair Exploration Company, to whom the government charges the detectives shadowing the jury made their reports at the home of Donald Woodward, wealthy Washington marchant, also was at the court house. He refused to answer additional questions before the grand jury on the ground that his testimony might tend to incriminate him.

Day has long been in Sinclair's service and has been entrusted with many missions both in this country and abroad. He was in the near east soon after the war seeking oil concessions there at the time that Rear Admiral Chester obtained petroleum rights in that corner of the world.

Blizzard Sweeps Western Wyoming

Upwards of 75 Motorists Marooned at Medicine Bow—Large Crews at Work in Hopes of Reaching Motorists. Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 3 (AP)—A three-day blizzard along the Continental Divide in western Wyoming today left upwards of 75 motorists marooned at Medicine Bow while many tourists were forced to abandon automobiles at other points. There were reports that several passengers on a bus operating between Laramie and Medicine Bow were injured when the machine overturned. The driver of another bus was burned and the passengers forced to the snow when car struck a high tension wire. The passengers were taken to Medicine Bow. Many persons who abandoned automobiles at Laramie and Rock Springs, Wyo., arrived here today.

Rumors that a plane bearing Mrs. Wanda Johnston of Cooperstown, N. Y., to Los Angeles, had been lost, were dispelled when the ship arrived here five hours over due. The pilot said he fought head winds of from 40 to 50 miles an hour from Chicago to Salt Lake, and was forced once to return. Mrs. Johnston was attempting to keep a dinner engagement in Los Angeles last night. She will continue today.

Large crews were at work on highways in western Wyoming and eastern Utah in the hope of reaching the motorists at Medicine Bow before night.

Elimination of 13 Rail Crossings

Public Service Commission Holds Hearing at Albany on 1926 Program—Three Crossings Located in Delaware County—Municipalities Oppose Elimination.

Albany, Nov. 3 (AP)—There was a hearing before Public Service Commission today on the proposed elimination of 13 crossings of the New York Central, the Delaware & Hudson, the Delaware Lackawanna & Western, and the Erie Railroad Companies located in Montgomery, Schoharie, Otsego, Delaware, Greene, Columbia, Warren and Washington counties.

The hearing was in compliance with the law requiring the commission to hold hearings on programs for the suggested elimination of rail crossings during 1926, preparation to a designation by December 1 of crossings actual elimination of which will be further considered during the coming year.

Municipalities wherein are located rail crossings suggested for elimination in the programs by the state superintendent of public works and the New York Central were represented as follows:

Village President E. J. Higgins for Fultonville; Attorney Francis L. Small, Cobleskill; Attorney A. Lindeman, Otsego; and Supervisor Leonard Small, Kortright, Delaware county; Attorney Ralph S. Ives and Supervisor Henry Bluth, Roxbury, Delaware county; Village President A. C. Fairchild and Trustee Arthur Shaw, Cossack.

The towns of Richfield, Unadilla, Otego and Oneonta in Otsego county; Davenport in Delaware county; Copake, Columbia county; Queensbury in Warren county; and the village of Port Edward were not represented at the hearing although there are suggested rail eliminations in these municipalities.

The railroads were represented by F. D. Bardwell, counsel New York Central; C. A. Bayne, assistant engineer Delaware Lackawanna & Western; and H. H. Fierman, attorney, and L. Phelps, superintendent, Ulster, Delaware, and A. R. Moore, the Delaware & Hudson.

Municipalities Oppose Plan.

The municipalities which were represented at the hearing were opposed to the proposed eliminations on the ground of cost and necessity, but it was stated that if the eliminations were ordered the municipalities would ask for state aid in paying for their share of the cost. The New York Central's representative stated that the road was ready to go ahead with all elimination work. The Delaware Lackawanna & Western stated that it believed there were more important crossings which should be eliminated than the one on the program, located on a branch line south of Ulster. The Delaware & Hudson announced its willingness to proceed under proper plans, while the Ulster & Delaware Road did not express its attitude.

Rail crossings named on the suggested program and considered were as follows: Fultonville-Ponda highway crossing at West Shore in Fultonville; Road crossing at New York Central in Rock, Montgomery county; New Street crossing of West Shore in Cossack; and Snyder's crossing of New York Central in Copake, Columbia county.

Cobleskill-West. Richmondville crossing of the Delaware & Hudson tracks in Cobleskill; Unadilla-Well Bridge highway crossing in Unadilla, Otsego county; Otego-Oneonta Shadyside-Oneonta highway crossing in towns of Otego and Oneonta, Otsego county; Sandy Hill-Glens Falls highway crossing in Queensbury, Warren county; and Broadway crossing in Port Edward.

Delhi-Bloomville and Bloomville-Hobart crossings of the Ulster & Delaware Railroad in Kortright, Delaware county; Harpersfield-Davenport Center crossing in Davenport, Delaware county; Grand Gorge-Stamford-Harpersfield crossing in Roxbury, Delaware county; Richfield Springs-Winfield crossing of Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad in Richfield, Otsego county.

Judge Schirick Talks Plainly to the People

POPULAR CANDIDATE FOR OFFICE OF MAYOR TAKES COGNIZANCE OF PROPAGANDA BEING CIRCULATED IN CITY AND TELLS WHAT HE HAS NOT PROMISED—CALLS ATTENTION TO A LAW PERTAINING TO BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

A statement issued by Judge Harry E. Schirick to the voters and people of Kingston, is as follows:
To the Voters of the City of Kingston:
Just about this time last fall the influences opposed to the election of our present Sheriff, Arthur Rice, were very diligent and noisy before election to make his appointments for him. Sheriff Rice, however, made his own appointments.

The same forces now opposed to me are equally diligent to prophesy who my appointees will be if I am elected Mayor of this City.

I assure you that I have not promised the appointment of Corporation Counsel to any person;

That I have not promised the appointment of City Assessor to anyone;

That I have not promised the appointment of City Treasurer to any person;

That I have not promised the appointment, or promised to secure the appointment of Street Superintendent or Assistant Street Superintendent to any person;

That I have not promised the appointment of City Engineer to any person;

That I have not promised the appointment of City Clerk to any person;

With respect to these appointments and with respect to any and all appointments that I may be called upon to make, I repeat what I promised heretofore that I will call to the public service the ablest men and women that I can secure, men and women who enjoy the confidence and respect of the people of the City at large.

I can assure the voters of the City that, if I am elected, I alone will make the appointments that the Charter authorizes me to make and that no one will be permitted to make such appointments for me. I will be responsible for the character and integrity of my appointees. I assure you that I will be the Mayor and not any of my appointees the Mayor. No one will exercise the powers of the office of Mayor by proxy. An invisible government will not function during my incumbency in the office.

In view of another bit of propaganda which is being circulated let me call your attention to Local Law No. 2 of the year 1924 passed by the Common Council and approved by Mayor Block, September 8, 1924.

"Section 1. The board of public works shall consist of four members appointed by the Mayor.

Not more than two commissioners of public works shall belong to the same political party, or be of the same political opinion on State and National issues."

Torre and Biviano At Victory Ball

Cities Violin and Accordion Team Will Be Among the Attractions at Armory on Armistice Night.

Among the celebrities of the radio world who will appear at the Victory Ball in the Kingston Armory November 11 are Torre and Biviano. This clever violin and accordion team won fame over WEAF by the clearness and quality of their music. They will take an important part in the American Legion's radio show preceding the ball.

The musical possibilities of strange combinations of instruments, which broadcast has brought to the fore is strikingly illustrated in the case of Torre and Biviano, two young men who succeeded in producing extraordinary music from a violin and an accordion.

Although their duet numbers are projected them into prominence through the effectiveness with which they registered over the air. Torre and Biviano's music is just as outstanding when they are heard in person. Both of them are serious musicians, and they succeed in making both classical and popular selections equally agreeable.

Anthony Torre has studied the violin since he was fourteen. As a boy he was compelled to work hard for a living, and it was not easy to spare the time for music. He began to play the violin in spite of all obstacles, he carried on with the instrument. For a long period he studied with one of Leopold Stokowski's assistants.

Joseph Biviano can not remember when he started to play an accordion, but he knows that he was playing when he was a very small boy. His father gave him his first lessons on a semi-tone or small accordion, and when Joseph was sixteen, the large piano accordion he now uses was presented to him.

Torre and Biviano have been playing together only a year, but the smoothness with which their instruments blend is proof of their excellent teamwork.

John Hull for Alderman in 12th

The Republican party in the Twelfth ward has for its candidate for alderman a man who has had training in that position. John E. Hull, the Republican candidate, served as alderman of the Twelfth ward four years, and during that time conscientiously worked for the best interests of the city of Kingston and the ward which he represented.

Mr. Hull has been a resident of Kingston since birth. He was formerly employed by H. W. Palen & Sons as a foreman and bookkeeper and remained there upwards of fifteen years. He is now employed by F. B. Matthews, Inc., and has been for the past eleven years. His twenty-five years of business experience have brought him a knowledge of business affairs which will aid him in performing his duties as alderman. A long residence in the Twelfth ward has made him cognizant of the needs and requirements of that ward, and he can be depended upon to look out for the best interests of that section of the city, having due regard, of course, to the welfare of the city as a whole.

Mr. Hull is personally popular in the ward; he has been a member of Excelsior Hose since he was eighteen years old and has had fifteen years' active experience as a fireman. During that period of time he has held practically all of the offices in the company, and is now a life member.

If the people of the Twelfth ward desire active and intelligent representation in the board of aldermen, they will do well to elect Mr. Hull on November 8.

So much more vigor

—when the system is cleansed of poisons we all have

DO you know that poisons form all the time in your system? They get into the blood stream and so rob you of the vigor, life, youth and energy you should have. Hardly anyone escapes them. Food wastes accumulate and fermentation takes place. As many as 35 of these ever-forming poisons are already known to science.

But nature has provided a natural sort of antidote. In a scientifically pure state this antidote is available to everybody under the trade name of Nujol. Nujol is a unique substance unlike anything else known to man. It cannot be absorbed by the body or any of the organs of the body. At the same time, it has an affinity for body poisons. It takes hold of them, absorbs them, and carries them out of the system safely and harmlessly. It also softens waste matter and brings about normal evacuation of the intestines. Gets rid of poisons, gets rid of food wastes, tends to heal and soothe irritated membranes. Contains no drugs or medicines. Absolutely harmless.

Perfectly by the Chemical Products Division of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

Nujol contains no drugs or medicine. It's in a class by itself. You can take it with perfect safety under any conditions. It won't cause gas or griping pains, or affect the stomach or kidneys.

Every corner drugstore has Nujol. Make sure you get the genuine. Look for the Nujol bottle with the label on the back that you can read right through the bottle. Don't delay, get Nujol today.

Thinking for Oneself

In learning what others have thought, it is well to keep in practice the power to think for oneself; when an author has added to your knowledge, pause and consider if you can add nothing to him—Lord Lytton.

Show Evidence,
Says Governor

To Substantiate Charges of Vice in Albany County in His Challenge
To Colonel Theodore Roosevelt.

New York, Nov. 3 (AP).—With a challenge that evidence be produced to substantiate charges of vice in Albany county Governor Alfred E. Smith struck back at Colonel Theodore Roosevelt in a statement published today.

In speeches before the Republican state convention at Rochester and in this city, Colonel Roosevelt attacked Tammany as corrupt and blamed Tammany and the governor for conditions in Albany.

"Colonel Roosevelt had little interest in the welfare of the state of New York when at the height of a campaign for constitutional amendments he uses up the time of the public to make a personal attack upon me," said the governor's reply. One of the amendments the governor referred would provide for the election of governors in presidential years, a measure fostered by the Republicans and similar to one recently defeated in New Jersey.

Governor Smith said that Col. Roosevelt "is entirely without understanding of the state's fiscal system." Roosevelt's charges that police raids on Tammany Hall club houses had revealed open gambling were admitted by the governor, who met them with a counter charge that similar raids had been made on Republican club houses, in one of which police encountered gunmen with police records who were in the employ of the Republican club to protect the play.

Not a Policeman.

Addressing Col. Roosevelt, Governor Smith said in his statement:

"If you have any information about official neglect on the part of the officials of Albany county and will file charges with me in proper form as required by statute, I will proceed against them as a governor should proceed, exactly as I have proceeded in all other cases where complaints were properly filed."

"In the meanwhile, please do not insult the intelligence of the people of the state by attempting to lead them to believe that the governor is a policeman and should go out patrolling his post every night looking for violators of the law."

"Quit the job of trying to pull the red hot political chestnuts out of the fire for the discredited leaders of your old, broken down, dilapidated, corrupt Republican machine."

"You made some rash and foolish statements that were bitterly criticized by the press of the country and by members of your own party."

To charges of Col. Roosevelt that he had investigated law violations in Republican counties while ignoring conditions in Democratic counties, Governor Smith said he had ordered inquiries into every irregularity according to territorial lines.

Inventor Scores
Use of Beacon

Brands Practice As Breach of Property Rights—May Be Injurious To The Eyesight.

New York, Nov. 3 (AP).—The use of a four billion candle power search light to flash the huge advertisements of a moving picture theatre upon the buildings of competitors and upon skyscrapers in the Times Square district today brought protests from the inventor of the beacon, Chief H. Grindell-Matthews, British scientist and engineer, known as the inventor of the "death ray."

In expressing his disapproval Mr. Grindell-Matthews branded the practice a breach of property rights. He also said it might injure the vision of those looking into the giant projecting machine from buildings a few hundred yards distant. The true purpose of the machine, he pointed out, was to throw messages and pictures against the sky.

The inventor, president of the Sky Projecting Corporation, which is exploiting the invention, said that as internal troubles had arisen in the company he was powerless to restrain general manager Harry E. Aitkens, in whom is vested active control of the searchlight.

Mr. Aitkens said that he had received no complaints from owners of buildings which had been used as screens. He denied the beams were injurious to the eyesight.

WALTER G. GEROLDSEK.

The candidate for county clerk who is making the strong appeal to the thoughtful voter is Walter G. Geroldsek. This is not because of political affiliations, but as a matter of good business judgment on the part of the voter. The work of the county clerk is highly specialized. A man unacquainted with it, no matter how well qualified in other directions, would be lost, more than that, the work of the office would be seriously hampered.

Mr. Geroldsek's first insight into the county affairs was as member of the Board of Supervisors. This was followed a few years ago by his selection as deputy county clerk. He learned the work of the office from the ground up, not only the duties of a recording officer with its thousands of deeds, mortgages, judgments and legal papers of all kinds, but as well the duties of clerk of Supreme and County court, and clerk of naturalization. It is safe to say that no clerk, or deputy clerk, past or present, has so intimate and accurate a knowledge of the duties of this important office as has he.

The public demands in public servants, first, honesty, and second, efficient service. In this case both candidates are admittedly beyond criticism as to honesty; as to capability for efficient service, however, Mr. Geroldsek, by reason of his exceptional experience in the office, and his thorough knowledge of every phase of the work, stands out as preeminently well qualified. There should, therefore, be no hesitation on the part of the voter who aims at the highest degree of good service on the part of public officials. The vote should be cast for Walter G. Geroldsek.

THE HOGGISH DRIVER.

Again the "road hog" gets a wallop. That animal, it may be explained, is a driver who gets out into the middle of the road and lies down and goes to sleep there while a lot of drivers who are going somewhere try to get by him. These porcine drivers, declares the head of a big automobile club, are "the greatest single cause of traffic accidents." Loading along at 10 or 15 miles an hour, when the exigencies of traffic call for 20 or 25 or 30 miles, and refusing to move over to let the traffic pass, they exasperate all the motorists who want to drive at normal speed, and by impeding the rush-hour traffic they cause collisions and accidents of many kinds.

Says the automobile club man: "The motorist must be educated to drive in the right traffic lane, at the right speed, or to remain close to the curb if he prefers to loiter." And if the street isn't wide enough for separate lines of fast and slow traffic, it is obvious that he shouldn't loiter.

NO MORE HOLIDAYS.

Not content with driving Italians to work on regular working days, Premier Mussolini has abolished holidays. Italy, he is determined, shall set an example of industry to the world. This, observes President Green of the American Federation of Labor, is "another indication of the folly that must certainly carry the Fascist government to ultimate ruin." That is probably true. Labor can be "driven just so far". Which is only another way of saying that human nature can be driven just so far.

Italy may have more holidays than is good for it, but to sweep them all away at one fell stroke is an extreme and perilous thing, even for so powerful a dictator as Mussolini. Italian labor, however poorly organized, will not endure much more dictation of that sort. "All work and no play" not only makes Jack a dull boy but makes Pietro rebellious. It is too late in history, even in Italy, for public task-masters driving slaves to work with the lash.

Southern and Western men of good breeding who still say "ma'am" in conversation with ladies, and who are therefore ridiculed as provincial in urban centers of the East, may be interested to know that the usage is found in a recent Galworthy novel depicting public society in England at the present time. Commenting on the fact, the New York Times observed: "Ma'am" is an honest and useful word. It is a brief 'yes' or 'no' and makes a complete sentence. It is a word which Victoria was pleased to be addressed as by Disraeli and Gladstone, modern ladies should be even more so."

It was only to be expected that the 20-pound pudding to be served in Buckingham Palace at Christmas would contain "one gill of brandy and two gills of rum," but it is rather startling to read that a further ingredient will be "two quarts of beer." Buckingham palace must have acquired what is called a cultivated taste. However, the matter is of little concern to us in this dry land where the wise stomach is afraid to risk plum pudding of the Volstead brand.

Out of three thousand contestants Nathalia Crane has won the $500 prize for the best poem on Lindbergh's transatlantic flight. This would seem to be an effective answer to the charge brought against the little Brooklyn girl still in her early teens that her poems published some time ago were too good for one of her age and that an older writer was using her in order to attract attention.

In a little less than three months Lindbergh has flown 22,350 miles, touching at some point in every State of the Union. He stopped in 52 cities, delivered 147 speeches, endured 1,255 miles of parade and an "undoubtedly" number of banquets, sometimes two or more in one evening. No wonder he looks bored in spite of his commendable efforts to "look pleasant."

And now an "English Bishop Raps Women's Hosiery," but the only thing the wearers thereof seem to mourn over is their tragic experience on a rainy day in a crowded street, when skidding car tires squirt whole halves of puddles as far as the middle of the sidewalks and cause flesh-colored stockings to display remains of the muddy dump from the knee down.

EATING WHEN TIRED.

One of the mistakes many individuals make, is eating a heavy meal when they are tired.

After a period of mental or physical work, with the regular time for eating delayed a couple of hours, it would seem only natural that one would want a real big meal.

It isn't to be wondered at therefore that distress ensues, because that meal lies in the stomach for hours without undergoing much digestion, owing to the tiredness of the whole body, nerves of course included.

Now it is just about this time that many of these acute illnesses from which folks suffer, can be traced to this combination of overfatigue followed by a heavy meal. This is especially true during the cold weather, for cold is a factor also.

You can readily see that if there is a delay in the stomach there is going to be further delay in small intestine, and then again in large intestine.

Thus many cases of illness thought to be due to overwork, can really be blamed on the overeating after a hard day's work.

Now the old idea that a heavy meal should not be eaten when you have some hard mental or physical work to do is still considered good sense.

It is wise to eat the hearty meal of the day after the day's work is done. However it is just here that a short rest of twenty to thirty minutes, lying down on the right side, will rest nerves and muscles to the point where the hearty meal may be eaten with absolute safety.

As mentioned before, if any portion of the previous meal is lying undigested in the stomach, this lying on the right side will syphon it into small intestine, get the stomach free of food, and ready for the next meal.

So when you are very tired try and rest awhile before eating. If this is impossible, then a "small" meal, consisting of an egg, a little bread, and fruit with milk or water would be wise.

Further, if when you are tired you could get a good sleep or long rest, this would make up for the small quantity of food eaten.

Because when you work hard, rest and food are essential. Also as a heavy meal may "upset" you, and start trouble, therefore a little more rest will answer the purpose.

Importance of Taste

We imperatively require a perception, and a homage to beauty in our companions. Other virtues are in request in the field and workyard, but a certain degree of taste is not to be spared in those we sit with. I could better eat with one who did not respect the truth or the laws than with a sloven and unrepresentative person. Moral qualities rule the world, but at short distances the senses are despotic.

Origin of Ship's Bells

The striking of bells on board ship, dates from the time of the half-hour sandglass. The bell was struck every time the glass was turned.

O'Farrell May Not Manage Cards

St. Louis, Nov. 3 (AP).—Bob O'Farrell may not manage the St. Louis Cards in 1928, although he probably will remain in Cardinal uniform. President Sam Breadon announced today.

"I do not want to spoil a good catcher by keeping on his shoulders the responsibility of management," Breadon said. "Perhaps the management worries had something to do with O'Farrell having an unfortunate year."

Thompson Replies Results in Farm To Suit for Writ Bureau Campaign

Chicago, Nov. 3 (AP).—Mayor Thompson has replied to a suit for an injunction restraining him or his subordinates from destroying pro-British books of the Chicago public library with the remark, "I can burn the books, but I won't."

Chief among the contentions set forth in the mayor's reply which will be filed in the form of a demurrer before Circuit Judge Fisher today, were the following:

Citizens do not have the right to unrestricted use of books in the public library.

The right to decide what publications shall be received into the public library or removed therefrom is invested with the directors of the library board, and may not be interfered with by injunction.

The mayor has the right to investigate or cause to be investigated any public institution.

No injunction can be issued against the defendants to restrain them from destroying books of the library because such is their legal privilege.

The mayor and his co-defendants had no intention of destroying any books or having them destroyed.

The suit for injunction to prevent destruction of library volumes was filed by Attorney J. Kentner Elliott after a threat by Library Trustee, U. J. (Sport) Herrmann to seize alleged pro-British texts and have them burned on the lake front by the public hangman.

Talk Conditions In Philippines

Washington, Nov. 3 (AP).—Conditions in the Philippine Islands were discussed intimately by President Coolidge today with Manuel Quezon, president of the Philippine Senate, and Senator Osmena who, with Secretary of the war department, spent nearly an hour at the White House.

The Filipino leader declined to discuss his conference with Mr. Coolidge, declaring that any comment thereon must come from the White House. He did say, however, that the question of independence was not touched upon that the President invited them the return for further discussions in the event they desired any.

Early to bed, early to rise, would spoil the fun of a lot of gurs!

Two Days of Ulster County Campaign Bring Removal of 1927 Memberships—Increase in Membership Over 1927 Is Anticipated.

Throughout the length and breadth of New York State, Farm Bureau Associations are now beginning an annual canvass for 1928 memberships. Announcement came from the local office last week that Tuesday, November 1, the Ulster County Campaign would strike up. Just as promised it did strike up on that date and reached a higher altitude than ever before for the opening day, memberships coming in from the various communities totaling one hundred and twenty-one. On Wednesday, the second day of the campaign, seventy-five more members renewed, boosting the total for the first two days to one hundred ninety-seven, a most gratifying situation to all concerned.

Since its organization nearly thirteen years ago, the Farm Bureau has professed to be an organization "of the farmers," "by the farmers," and "for the farmers" of Ulster county. It has each year held out a hand of service to all farmers who had agricultural problems and would make these problems known. Linked up as it is with the United States Department of Agriculture, the New York State Department of Agriculture, the New York State Agricultural College and other agricultural institutions it is well fortified with a fund of reliable, unbiased, practical information on farming topics. Through the medium of the Farm Bureau this information is most quickly and dependably available. That farmers of Ulster county appreciate their organization is evidenced by the continued and extended support given.

To all appearances the present campaign is to be more than usually successful, with an increase in membership over 1927 resulting.

Stanbrough Has Business Ability

Republican Candidate for Supervisor in Twelfth Ward Has Had Unusual Opportunities to Acquire Practical Business Knowledge, Which Makes Him a Valuable Representative.

The voters of the Twelfth ward of the city of Kingston will have an opportunity on election day to vote for a candidate for supervisor who has had an unusual business experience and whose success in business is a guarantee of his ability to adequately represent the city of Kingston in the board of supervisors. This is the Republican candidate, Edward M. Stanbrough. He has been a resident of the Twelfth ward of the city of Kingston for thirty-one years, and now resides at 149 Main street. The experience acquired by Mr. Stanbrough, during his business career, cannot help but be invaluable to him and to the people of the city of Kingston, whom he will represent in the board of supervisors. He was born in Herkimer county, the son of a clergyman, who moved to West Hurley in 1856 and to the city of Kingston, in 1886.

Thirty-one years ago, Mr. Stanbrough entered the employ of Mortimer C. Drake, who then operated a department store on Wall street, in this city. His application to business and keen business instincts became perceptible to those who had business in Mr. Drake's store, and in 1902 the Butterick Publishing Company made him their special representative, and he traveled for them over the United States and Canada until 1921, when illness compelled him to resign. Upon regaining his health, he became the Kingston representative of R. F. DeVoe & Company, of 120 Broadway, New York city, who deal in high grade bonds and securities, and with which company he is now associated.

His business connections over a period of years has gained for him a knowledge of business and finance, which stands him well, and have eminently fitted him as a member of the board of supervisors, which controls the fiscal affairs of the county. With the increase and growth of the city of Kingston, it is imperative that it be represented in the board of supervisors by men who have a knowledge of the county's affairs, and of business in general. During the time that Mr. Stanbrough has resided in the Twelfth ward, he has been active in civic and city affairs. He is keenly appreciative of the relationship of the city of Kingston to the rest of the county, and well qualified to further the interests of his constituents, as well as to advance the general welfare of the county as a whole.

Mr. Stanbrough never held public office until he was appointed supervisor of the Twelfth ward to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. Charles Snyder, who became a commissioner of elections, and during the year Mr. Stanbrough has been a member of the board of supervisors, his activities, in behalf of the welfare of the voters whom he represents, have been obvious. He has proved himself more than qualified to perform the duties of the office for which he is now the Republican candidate.

The city of Kingston will benefit by the election in the Twelfth ward of Mr. Stanbrough.

CAS BUGGIES—All Well That Ends Well

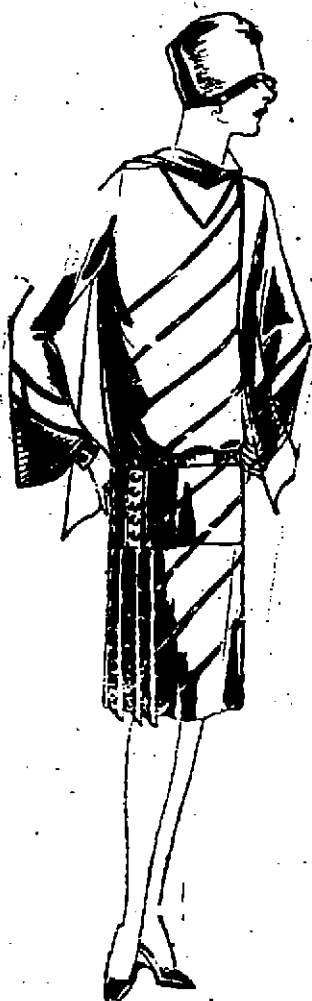

Eleanor Gunn on Fashions

Large Chiffon Handkerchiefs, Handkerchief Jabots, and Other Possibilities for Adding Individuality to the Costume

New York—Among the newest accessories to score, there may be mentioned large chiffon handkerchiefs—a change verily from the diminutive ones so easily hidden in one's glove. Paquin is credited with starting this interesting fad. The handkerchiefs are plain, but in a diversity of colors, and are decorated only by a rolled hem. Of course, the printed handkerchief just naturally followed. In this type, small all-over designs are preferred. It is the size that really makes for interest.

While on the subject of smart handkerchiefs, have you seen the shell rings that smart girls wear as a means of holding the handkerchief scarf in position? Every woman knows how really difficult it is to keep that casual knot, so chic in bandannas, in position. And every woman should welcome any aid to achieve the proper adjustment of the square neck-scarf, which continues very much the mode.

Originally intended only for sports wear, the handkerchief square has developed into all sorts of interest.

Doculiet is Responsible for This Gown, Which is of Black Jersey with Bindings of Black Crepe Marking the Diagonal Seamwork and the Scarf. Which is Faced with Beige Crepe de Chine.

ing themes, the smartest, perhaps resulting from having the handkerchief of the same material as the dress and attached to it. Several evening gowns have the slightly folded or draped neck-line suggestive of the bandanna, and sports frocks continue to make use of the same idea or to vary it by employing a longer scarf.

Doculiet combines black jersey, crepe braid, and beige crepe effectively, lining the scarf with beige and fastening it to one shoulder so that it may be worn in several ways.

Handkerchief jabots are another suggestion. These are often of the gown's own material, with applied and contrasting borders. In necklines, as in hems, the aim is to be casual, and to affect an interesting unevenness.

ELEANOR GUNN On Fashions

More of the Haute Couture Are to Visit America, and an Interchange of Ideas is Apparent in the Fashions of the Day.

New York—It is becoming more and more the practice for the big dress-makers of Paris to make a trip over here, the object being to study that luxurious person the American woman, on her native heath.

Obviously, one is inclined to create more intelligently when one knows for whom one is creating. The haute couture feel that it is necessary not only to study the American type, but to study it in its own setting and in the pursuit of its daily habits. Ever so many of them have come over. All have found inspiration in us, which is something to pride ourselves upon.

Paul Poiret, one of the first to come to America to observe and to lecture, is among those scheduled to return this winter. Madame Lanvin, whose picturesque gowns are familiar to us all, is another who will follow the example of Lelong and others by visiting America. This close contact between the two countries results in a molding of the dress ideas of the two nations. One sees more and more French and French-inspired clothes in America, and one sees too that French clothes are being strongly influenced by what we regard as fitting and appropriate for our life as lived in American cities and towns.

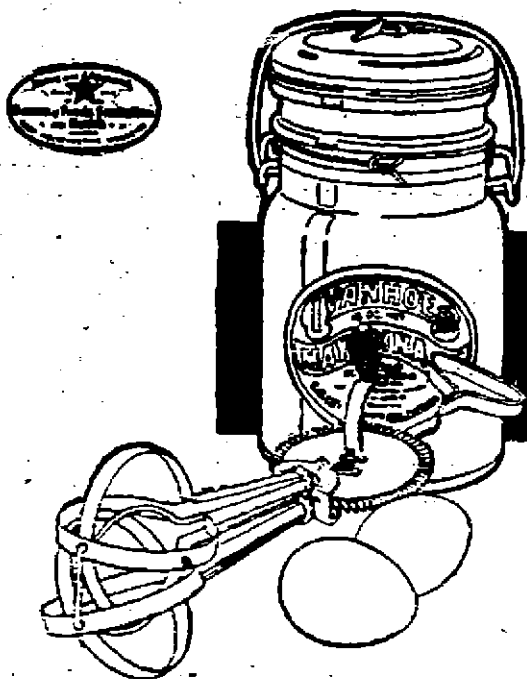

Attention to Detail.

It sometimes happens that America goes off on her own, and ignores the dictum of Paris. An example of this at the present time may be found in hats. One finds many well-dressed American women selecting velvet hats, but rarely does one see in Paris anything but felt, the exception being soieil, or a combination of felt and soieil or velvet. The skull cap has captured Paris, but in that we are not behind, any quantity of skull caps being seen about town and in the smartest places.

Well-dressed women have become even more particular than formerly concerning the details, not only details of their accessories, but their lingerie. Sheer black lingerie has developed from an incidental thing to something of a fashion.

Shops report a growing demand for dainty chiffon and lace things to wear under the smart black evening frocks that are so applauded by discriminating on-lookers. Dance sets and such frivolities in black, embellished by embroideries may seem a bit ultra, yet they are certainly in better taste with black dance frocks than color would be, and certainly simplify dressing.

Black velvet heads the list of elegant and desirable fabrics, and is beginning to be important in conjunction with white fur, preferably fox, for evening wraps. Many of these wraps are on circular lines. Of course, the usual quota of ermines and sables

SEASONABLE FOODS

During the summer months we enjoy other foods than meat; occasionally a day of steaks or chops will be enjoyed, but the bulk of the meals are better for us with little meat.

Onions on Toast.—Cook a bunch of young green onions in enough water to cover until tender. Drain off the water, add a tablespoonful of butter with salt and pepper. Prepare buttered toast and pour over the hot buttered onions, moistening with a bit of the liquor in which they were cooked. Serve hot.

Nuts With Cheese.—Beat to a cream one tablespoonful of butter, then add one-half cupful of cottage cheese which has been well seasoned with salt and cream. Cream cheese may be used if at hand. Add one-half cupful of chopped hickory nut meats and serve, adding a bit of lemon juice and make into balls. Serve as a salad with lettuce, or with crackers as a dessert, with coffee.

Pineapple Sorbet.—Prepare a sirup of two cupfuls of water and the same of sugar; boil 15 minutes, add one can of pineapple, one and one-third cupful of orange juice and one-half cupful of lemon juice; strain and add one quart of charged water, freeze to a mush and serve in trappe glasses.

Walnut Graham Bread.—Take one cupful of flour, two and one-half cupfuls of graham, one-half cupful of molasses, two cupfuls of sour milk, two well-beaten eggs, one teaspoonful of salt, two teaspoonfuls of soda and one cupful of walnut meats. Mix and bake in a moderate oven.

Nut Cutlets.—Take one cupful of bread crumbs, one-fourth cupful of finely chopped almonds, a little onion or chives, season well with salt and pepper. Put over the heat one cupful of milk; when boiling add the bread crumbs and four tablespoonfuls of butter. Cook until thick. When cool add the nuts, a little parsley, shape into cutlets, roll in egg and crumbs and fry in deep fat. Serve with tomato sauce.

Gives rich Delicious Flavor to Cake—

—The kind you associate with the most expensive ingredients

Every woman knows that a cake made with a spread-for-bread is richer and better than if made with an ordinary shortening. But most housewives think it too extravagant. NOW, however, you can give your cakes a rich, mellow, spread-for-bread flavor simply by using Jelke GOOD LUCK Margarine as a shortening. No need to resort to cheap prepared shortenings because the cost of GOOD LUCK is so relatively low that you can afford to use it for cake baking as well as on the table.

CHIMNEY SWEEP HAD HARD LIFE

Lads Under Ten Years Employed in Hazardous Job in Old Days.

London.—The chimney sweep—that poor fellow who was wont to appear in the neighborhood with loud calls from the rooftops—was marked for the discard 100 years ago when John Bentley, a London man, invented a machine which cleaned out chimneys.

Bentley's invention was recalled here in connection with a report on the business it has yielded in its century of use.

Many are the tales of hardships endured by the chimney boys of London prior to 1827. While in the United States men frequently did the work, it was the custom in England to recruit the chimney sweeps from boys who were in the poorest circumstances. Only 10 years ago, according to the records, a chimney-climbing boy was sentenced while at work, and the man who employed him was sentenced to six months' hard labor as a result.

Invention Was Simple.
Bentley's invention was quite a simple one, consisting of a circular brush attached to the end of a long rod, which, made in sections, could be lengthened or shortened, as desired. The brush was pushed up the chimney and moved up and down. As one section after another of the rod was detached, the whole of the chimney was swept.

There was little regard for the welfare of the chimney boys in those days, and Bentley's invention made little or no impression upon public opinion. It was not, indeed, until the horrors of the life of the chimney boy, and the obvious advantages of the new mechanical contrivance, were continuously dinned into the ears of the public through the efforts of an organization called the "Society for Superseding the Necessity of Climbing Boys" that people began to take an interest in the evil and in Bentley's means of removing it.

Small Boys Barred.

It required seven more years of agitation, however, before parliament was prevailed upon to pass an act dealing with the matter, and even then the legislature went no further than to prohibit the sweeping of chimneys by boys if they were under ten years of age. Not until 1864 was it made a crime to send lads up chimneys to clean them, and were magistrates empowered in cases of conviction under this act, to substitute a sentence of hard labor for a fine on the offending employer.

Lads of nine or ten years of age were regularly employed in this unhealthy and dangerous occupation. Many were infants of four years, were badly engaged.

Some of the boys for their task were told of terrorizing them. Others are told of cruel and callous employers who, in order to "teach" an apprentice who had been sent to some little distance up the chimney, and whether from fear or shame, refused to climb any further. But the worst of all was the fact that the object of forcing the lad to proceed to the top.

U. S. Has 14,000 Miles of Lighted Airways

Washington.—Although the aeronautics section of the Department of Commerce has been in operation a relatively short time, it already is able to present a map showing that by the end of its first full year of service, December 31, approximately 14,000 miles of standard airways will be available for nonmilitary aviation in the United States.

A standard airway, as the section grades it, must be for the airplane what the highway is for the motorist. Hurdles and difficulties ordinarily encountered by the sky traveler must be reduced to a minimum.

A number of sections of the airways thus far approved are lighted and equipped with emergency landing fields at frequent intervals, with beacons to guide and fairways to alight upon if necessary, making flying almost as safe at night as by daylight.

The network reaches from coast to coast, and from border to border, and the lines are expected to branch out in the next five years to make an even more comprehensive system.

Plan Mt. Vernon Drive to Honor Washington

Washington.—The two hundredth anniversary of the birth of George Washington will be celebrated by the completion of a Memorial boulevard between Washington and Mount Vernon if the plans of Senator Swanson and Representative Moore of Virginia are carried out.

The Virginia senator and congressman called on President Coolidge and laid before him a bill proposing a boulevard between the District of Columbia and Mount Vernon at a cost of between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000.

The bill will be introduced in the Senate at the coming session of Congress by Senator Swanson and in the House by Representative Moore. It is their plan to have the road completed by 1932 so that its construction may be celebrated on the two hundredth anniversary of Washington's birth.

Confession Talks Aid Child Rearing

Just As Interesting to the Child as Bedtime Story, Says Psychologist Who Says They Develop Good Qualities.

Springfield, O., Nov. 3 (AP)—"Bedtime stories," popular in American homes have been replaced by "confession talks," to the benefit of Dr. David Katz, professor of psychology in the University of Berlin, Germany.

His two children, Theodor and David, 10 and five years old respectively, have been subjects of his psychological research since their birth.

Dr. Katz, who told the results of his experiments at the world conference of psychologists here, is the founder of the new German school on child psychology. He is considered Germany's greatest authority on the subject.

Dr. Katz and his wife talk with their two children every night in the confessional hour while the boys are lying on their beds ready for sleep. These bedtime confession talks have been recorded word for word and analyzed by the German psychologist.

The bedtime talks attempt to bring to the boys' attention the consequences of their actions. Dr. Katz said that the boys' confession talks were begun during the war and have continued since.

He holds that through the bedtime confession talks, the boys' character and will power are established in the minds of the children, and that the parents are able to guide the children's actions and a critical attitude toward their own actions is developed.

This method is far more beneficial, Dr. Katz believes, and far less interesting to the child as the commonly American bedtime story. He reported that the children have learned to lie the child as well that they refuse to go to bed unless the talk has been completed.

Crime Essential to Human Progress

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 3 (AP)—Crime is an essential factor in the progress of the human race, and cannot be eliminated by jails or moral codes, Dr. S. W. Brownstein of the Illinois department of public health believes.

Dr. Brownstein's views were written for the Illinois Welfare Magazine, publication of the state department, and were considered so unusual that the magazine disclaimed responsibility for the theories propounded.

"Crime," says Dr. Brownstein, "is the urge to contravene, inherent in mother, organic or inorganic. It is a natural phenomenon, the manifestation of all activity, growth and development. It is the law of life and motion and its working principle is beyond the influence of human legislation."

"Can you imagine," he asks, "a progressive social system without capitalists, thieves, murderers, rogues, revolutionaries, war? Such a state would spell stagnation and death to the social system. If there was no antagonism, no friction, no contrast, there would be no resistance. When there is no resistance, there is no force. When there is no force, there is no life."

All in Point of View

She sat in the garden, comfortably ensconced before her broiled live lobster. Suddenly, in a green corner of the sward she discovered a turtle in the act of eating a worm. The living ribbon wriggled in agony as it grew shorter and shorter with each opening of the turtle's mouth. "Ugh!" she exclaimed. "Ain't nature cruel! It's ruined my appetite. My dinner is wrecked. Take it away!"—Isaac Goldberg in the Reflex.

A STATEMENT BY PACKARD

WE ARE appreciative of the fact that with the large increase in demand for the Packard car you may be under the impression that delivery cannot be made for several months. This is wrong.

During this year Packard has invested nearly ten million dollars in increased manufacturing facilities. This expenditure is now bearing fruit in increased production, and today we can offer reasonable dates of delivery on nearly all types and practically immediate delivery on the Packard Six five-passenger sedan.

Why not buy a Packard Six today, pay for it within a year, as many prefer to do, and then keep it five or more years as does the average owner? If your present car is of average value it will more than make the new car down payment and leave no cash outlay except for the small monthly notes.

The Packard Six five-passenger sedan, delivered, costs you but including tax, freight and all of the necessary accessories.

James L. Rowe For Supervisor

Is Republican Candidate in Second Ward and Should be Elected on His Record—Always Active and Interested in Advancement of Ward.

James L. Rowe, the Republican candidate for supervisor in the Second ward, should be returned to office by an even larger majority than that given him two years ago. He has made good as supervisor, and has been active in advancing the interests not only of the ward but the city and county at large.

Mr. Rowe is thoroughly familiar with the duties of supervisor and his experience will prove of great value not only to his own ward but the entire city and county.

While a member of the legislative body of Ulster county he has become thoroughly familiar with the vast amount of detailed work in connection with the office, and it was due to his ability that on June 1 he was made chairman of the important board of auditors.

Mr. Rowe is personally interested in every resident in the Second ward and is making an effort to see every one personally but owing to his business duties he has been unable to make a complete canvass of the ward, one of the largest and most important in the city.

The voters of the Second ward will make no mistake in casting their ballot for Mr. Rowe on November 8, for in voting for him they are assured of being represented by a man who has only the best interests of the ward at heart.

Syracuse to Vote On Elimination

Three Plans for Eliminating Existing Railroad Conditions to Be Submitted to Voters—Referendum Not Binding But Merely Expression of Opinion.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 3 (AP).—For the first time in the city's history, the voters this fall will have an opportunity to decide for themselves whether Syracuse shall remain "the city where the trains run through the streets."

Ever since the New York Central railroad has passed across the state, its main line tracks have run through the center of the Syracuse business district, with resultant notoriety and considerable fun at the expense of the community. Now, as the result of a careful survey of the grade crossing situation here by an engineering firm, a referendum has been prepared covering the various proposals for eliminating the present condition, and will be presented to the voters at the coming election.

Questions Submitted.

Three questions are to be asked in the referendum. They are, briefly:

Whether the West Shore tracks, a short distance north of the present main line, shall be elevated and the present tracks through the center of the city eliminated.

Whether the main line shall be run over the present freight tracks of the road on the northern outskirts of the city.

Whether the tracks of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, passing through the central and southern section of the city, shall be elevated over the present route.

Mayorality Candidates Promise Help

The referendum, although it will have no mandatory effect upon the city administration or the railroad, is looked upon as the most progressive step yet taken in the controversy over the grade crossing situation. Both Republican and Democratic candidates for mayor have announced that they will abide by the result and lend their efforts, if elected, to bringing about a solution.

The New York Central, however, has announced that elevation along the West Shore route is the only plan acceptable to the company, and that rejection of this proposal by the voters will mean continuance of the controversy which already has lasted for many years. The northern route, the company believes, would be far too inconvenient for travelers since it would place the station at a point several miles from the center of the city.

Elevation of the West Shore tracks was proposed by the company which made the grade crossing survey, and approval of the plan already has been voted by the common council, although this action will be superseded by the vote on the referendum if the voters approve the northern route.

West Shore Route Advantages.

Should the West Shore route be adopted, the station would be at West Genesee and North West streets, about three blocks north of the present station. Trains would be brought into the city at a much higher speed than at present, while traffic delays on through north and south busiest streets would be eliminated. The delays, while not of great length individually, total many minutes during the day, and during the rush hours often cause tie-ups of exasperating intensity to motorists and pedestrians.

Elevation of the present main line route of the New York Central, along Washington, or what is locally known as "Railroad" street, is unalterably opposed by a majority of the business houses along the thoroughfare, while depression of the tracks is declared by the railroad to be impossible because of the moist character of the soil underneath, which is only a few feet above the level of Onondaga lake, near the city. Depression would bring about constant flooding of the tracks, the railroad has asserted, and would be physically impossible.

Fitting for Life

Some one has been defining the duty of a college as fitting men and women for future problems. Education ought to do more than that. Education ought to fit men and women to live to the utmost, to appreciate the better things of life. To make a man efficient ought to be only one of the results of education.

5,000,000 MEMBERS GOAL OF RED CROSS ANNUAL ROLL CALL

Need of Expansion Due to Excessive Demands for Disaster Relief and Other Services.

A Red Cross membership of 5,000,000 in the United States will be sought this year during the Eleventh Annual Roll Call, November 11 to 24, Chairman John Barton Payne announced following completion of a study of the demands which the past year made on all branches of the Red Cross organization.

He stressed particularly the increasing demands of disaster relief as pointing to the need for an increased membership to aid in carrying the growing responsibility in this field. "For several years our membership has remained at a little more than 3,000,000 adults," he said. "We are proud of this membership. It is a body of our choice spirits, but there are many more of like spirit who should be counted in this Roll Call. We need at least 5,000,000 adult members. We are obliged to draw annually upon our reserves, and the demands upon us increase each year. Our Roll Call funds should meet our normal needs and add something to our reserves for the great disasters. We must have a large reserve. No one can tell when a situation may arise when this reserve will be essential to the lives of thousands.

"The Red Cross cannot wait to raise funds," Judge Payne declared. "Action prompt, instant, is its life. Instant action means the lives of many. It must be strong. It must be ready; this means a large reserve."

Total expenditures of the American Red Cross in the fiscal year to June 30 last in all fields amounted to $16,139,348.60, of which $11,360,348.60 represented the National Organization's appropriations and $4,779,000 the cost to the Red Cross local chapters. Included in this total was a disaster relief, for which $5,216,593.31 had actually been expended to the close of the year. This does not cover expenditures which continued to be made in the Mississippi Valley flood, or in other disasters originating during the fiscal year but whose operations extended over into the current period.

Service to disabled veterans, another outstanding demand on the organization, called for $2,930,223.56, and service to men of the Regular Army and Navy, $507,832.30. Maintenance of an enrolled Nurses' Reserve, from which the needs of disaster service and other emergencies are met, and which numbers more than 45,000 nurses totaled $45,248.82. For the Public Health Nursing program, a nation-wide activity of the Red Cross, $801,068.99 was expended. Other services contributing to health and well-being included instruction in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, for which $165,330.16 was spent; Nutrition instruction, which teaches thousands annually correct food principles in relation to health, $171,370.73; First Aid and Life Saving, a service which is actually curtailing accident and water casualties, $354,750.06; Junior Red Cross, the children's branch of Red Cross activity, and one of the most unique organizations in the world, $582,434.23.

Other Red Cross Chapter activities, including Home Service to civilians amounted to $1,220,000; while other national domestic operations required $236,147.17.

An outstanding American contribution to the rest of the world is Red Cross assistance in foreign disasters, which the report shows, called for $256,962 to the end of the fiscal year. Activities under the League of Red Cross Societies, Junior Red Cross foreign projects, assistance to American disaster chapters, and other foreign and insular work completed the demands on the total appropriation for the year.

These expenditures were cited by Chairman Payne as emphasizing the need for a growing membership and increased income.

Nerves Give Off Heat

New researches at Cornell university seem to show that an impulse traveling along a nerve is a high-speed chemical reaction. It was the old belief, based on the fact that stimulated nerves had never been found to give off heat, that the nerve impulse was a sort of electric current. By using an electric heat-measuring device capable of recording a temperature change of one twenty-millionth of a degree, it was found that a nerve gives off a minute quantity of heat when it reacts.

Pity the Woman Artist

Good artists are treated very badly. If one is a good artist and a woman it is even worse; and if one is a good artist and a good woman, it is, if you will pardon me saying so, absolute hell. There are moments when I long to be a member of the leper colony of Sumatra. These unfortunate people are at least regarded as objects of romantic interest, whereas artists, or at any rate good artists, are not. It is hardly respectable to be good nowadays.—Edith Sitwell.

Made Name Famous

At first Napoleon was known by his full name, just the same as any other citizen or soldier of France. Later, when he became emperor, he assumed the name of Napoleon I. It is customary for kings and emperors to have but one name, as Wilhelm III of Germany, Nicholas II of Russia, etc. They also had family names, such as Hohenzollern and Romanoff, but these names are seldom used in referring to them.

St. Peter's Parish SupperNextWeek

When the doors are opened at St. Peter's School Hall on Wednesday, November 16, the scene will be set for a fine feast. The first parish supper in a good long time will be served. It is exceptional how successful the workers have been in procuring the various articles that make for the grand outcome of such an affair. The ladies will prepare a menu to be served in a fine, old, German fashion, with plenty of choice so as to satisfy everyone's taste. The young ladies with their exquisite taste for excellent service will arrange the tables and wait on all the guests. Everyone concerned with the necessary preparation is heart and soul in the work. It will be a chance for renewing old friendships rooted in infancy and make new those formed in later days.

Every parishoner is expected to have supper that day. The good cooks of the homes will be free from that daily task on the 16th of November.

The young ladies will also provide a booth for the enjoyment of the kiddies who will come along with their folks. They will be able to amuse themselves by trying their luck at a fish pond attraction to be set up in the hall.

After all have feasted the hall will be cleared for an evening of dancing. Arrangements will be made for the admission of those who care to attend the dance.

Many others may desire to pass a pleasant evening in the bowling alleys. There will be prize bowling for all ladies and gents who play the game of ten pins. The alleys will be opened some time after the supper has been served.

BOYS' DIVISION BANQUET AT Y. M. C. A. FRIDAY.

The Boys' Division of the Y. M. C. A. will hold its annual banquet Friday at 6:15 p. m. The event is always one which attracts the attention of the boys and this year the enthusiasm is expected to excel that of past years. At the banquet prizes will be awarded those whose work was of high standard last year. Plans for the ensuing year will be discussed. All who attend are promised a real good time by Chester R. Hall, secretary of the department.

BALCHEN TO PILOT GRAYSON PLANE

Bernt Balchen, one of the heroes of Commander Byrd's flight to France, has consented to pilot Mrs. Frances Grayson's plane, "The Dawn," on projected trip over the Atlantic to Denmark. Balchen replaces Wilmer Stultz, accused of "mutiny" in third unsuccessful flight of Grayson crew.

CHI RHO TO HOLD SPECIAL MEETING AT Y. M. C. A.

The Kingston Chapter of Chi Rho will hold a special meeting for older boys on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A.

Three young men from the Rutgers College Y. M. C. A. will be in charge of the meeting.

This deputation team is led by an old Kingston High School boy, who helped to win the debating cup for the high school several times. Theodore Thielpape, who is a student in Rutgers, will be the leader.

This meeting will be the conclusion of a three day trip of the boys to Kingston, and it is expected that it will be a splendid meeting and that many young men and older boys will be present.

HOW TO REDUCE VARICOSE VEINS

Rub Gently and Upward Toward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way.

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and bunches.

If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) at any first-class drug store and apply it night and morning as directed you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Moore's Emerald Oil is a harmless, yet most powerful germicide and two ounces last a very long time. Indeed, so powerful is Emerald Oil that old chronic sores and ulcers are often entirely healed and anyone who is disappointed with his use can have their money refunded. Wm. F. Dedrick sells lots of it.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Nov. 3 (AP)—Reaction of the upward price movement in today's stock market was attended with some irregularity as bearish traders continued to forestall weak spots and test the character of the recent buying in some of the specialties. Continuation of easy money rates, the optimistic character of the monthly bank reviews and expectations of another sharp decrease in brokers' loans, all had a favorable effect on speculative sentiment.

Sustaining of export copper prices and a reduction in the stocks of the metal attracted fresh buying into the copper shares, with Calumet and Arizona the leader in that group. The advance in the oils was checked by reports of a weakening of the fuel oil market at gulf coast ports where there has been a heavy accumulation of the West Texas product.

Selling pressure was directed chiefly against such issues as General Motors, Southern Bell, American Telephone and Radio Corporation, although the last named touched a new record top in the early trading. Nearly a dozen other issues reached new high ground, the list including Midland Steel Products, preferred, American Lumber, Victor Talking Machine, Adams Express, American Railway Express, and Purdy Baking A and B. International Harvester and R. H. Macy each sold at least five points higher.

Speculative interest in the rails was divided between Norfolk and Southern, which was run up five points and Canadian Pacific, which advanced four. Southern Railway sold around the year's high on a revival of rumors that the annual dividend would be increased from $7 to $8 next year.

Twilight Inn Fire Results in Suit

Jersey City Man Sues for $15,000 Damages for Loss of Wife's Services—She Brings Suit Also for $50,000 for Injuries.

Peter B. Martin of Jersey City, whose wife was injured when the Twilight Inn burned near Haines Falls on July 14, 1926, brought action to recover $15,000 for the loss of her services before Judge Frank J. Coleman and a jury in United States District Court Tuesday. Mrs. Martin is also the plaintiff in another suit to recover $50,000 for alleged permanent injuries to herself sustained in the most tragic and sensational fire in the history of the hotel business of Greene county. Both Mr. and Mrs. Martin were guests at the Twilight Inn when it was razed by the fire.

In the suit, which is said to be the first brought to recover damages owing to the fire, Minnie Holmes, former chambermaid at the inn, testified that there were but two fire escape ropes for all the rooms on the second, third and fourth floors. Mary, her sister, was a victim of the holocaust.

The cause of the fire was never made public. It is said that evidence tended to make some believe the fire started near the boiler room, which was situated near the center of the hotel. As no public report was made of an inquiry and examination of witnesses by county officers, Dr. Herace G. Baldwin, corner of the town of Hunter, District Attorney Harrison I. Gardner and Sheriff Charles H. Arboxast, a judicial investigation will have to bring out the matter of the fire's origin and the responsibility, if any existed.

Smith Fined $5.

William Smith of Clinton avenue, who was arrested several days ago charged with disorderly conduct in refusing to pay his fare or leave one of the city buses, was found guilty in police court after a trial today and was fined $5 by Judge Shulteld.

Your weight is distributed approximately like this

What does your Foot do?

YOUR foot must provide support, must bear the weight of your body, must stand up under your 18,908 steps a day (the number of steps taken daily by the average man).

Now in supporting the body the foot bears the weight at three contact points—the heel, the "ball" and the outer side of the arch.

The ordinary shoe gives support at only two of these points—the heel and the "ball" for the shank of the ordinary shoe soon sags down and the arch is left unsupported.

Therefore the principle of the Arch Preserver Shoe is correct, for the concealed, built-in arch bridge supports at this contact point of the arch where support is needed and there can be no strain.

The Arch Preserver Shoe is different. It has other exclusive features.

Try a pair and you will greatly understand the difference.
